Important Change Concerning First Investors Traditional IRAs

We are pleased to announce that on June 1, 2006, telephone redemption privileges will be available to all First Investors Traditional IRA owners*. This will allow the Fund's transfer agent, Administrative Data Management ("ADM"), to accept telephone exchange or redemption instructions from the account owner, his or her registered representative, or any person who ADM reasonably believes is authorized to act on behalf of the account owner in accordance with procedures set forth in the prospectus and Shareholder Manual.

We are enclosing the notice that will be in the March 31st statements advising Traditional IRA owners of this new privilege. No action is required unless the owner notifies ADM that he/she does not want the privilege. To decline, a customer should enter the customer number, name and address, sign the opt-out portion of the notice and return it to ADM.

The Amendment to the Custodial Agreement and Disclosure Statement is printed on the reverse side of the notice. It should be retained by each customer with his/her Traditional IRA documents. Any customer who opens a new Traditional IRA must be given a copy of both notices. Please make sure the Amendment and opt-out notice are inserted into any existing IRA booklets you have. We are in the process of updating the booklets and will provide new booklets upon request.
